

ROUNDERS TO BASEBALL

From a rousing game of stoolball at Plimoth Plantation to Civil War soldiers playing in prisons, from gambling scandals to a bitter rivalry that cancelled a World Series, baseball has enchanted and enraged generations of Americans. It popularized Cracker Jacks, baseball cards and the Broadway song "Tessie." This is a fun look at the game's social, historical and professional evolution from 19th century "townball" to the major leagues.

Presented by Award-winning Storyteller Anne Barrett

It's not just for baseball fans, it's for anyone who enjoys history!

Thursday, April 9th, 7 PM

The Black Tavern

138 Center Road, Dudley

