

ANNUAL TAVERN VISITORS

Each spring families of finches take up residence in the geraniums that we have on the front porch of the Tavern. This year is no exception as we once again have parents that are waiting for five eggs to hatch. More photos to come as the eggs hatch.