

Caretaker Report, February 2026

Greetings,

Not much to report about this month other than the fact that I have completed the newsletter, brought it to the printer, and got it back yesterday. I plan to purchase stamps today, then tape the copies, put stamps and labels on them and try to get them out in the mail over the next two days.

Regards,

Bob